"Saved by Grace we proclaim the Gospel by sharing the love of Jesus."

Dear Trinity members and friends,

While not everyone could be at the Installation Service on May 21, I want to thank all those who included our installation service in their Sunday afternoon that day. The Installation of a Pastor, whether settled or intentional interim, is an important public recognition that the pastor didn't just walk in off the street or show up one Sunday. Rather he has been "rightly called" to a congregation to preach and teach the Gospel of our Lord.

I am grateful for this call among you and thankful to our elders, church council, and all the volunteers who made it such a marvelous celebration marking the beginning of our ministry together. Special thanks and appreciation go to all those who prepared and served and helped clean up after the wonderful dinner we had afterward. I want to thank the choir and our musicians for their wonderful music, and I want to thank my colleagues in the Holy Ministry for taking the time to gather with us and support us in their prayers and good words. God has truly blessed Trinity with a beautiful place to worship and wonderful people who strive to make our worship a worthy offering of praise and thanksgiving to God.

My thanks to Pastor Michael Warmbier for serving as President Paul Linnemann's representative and officiating at the installation rite. I also want to thank my friend, Pastor Paul Doellinger who preached such a great sermon for us.

It was wonderful to have a good group of people from my former congregation, Shepherd of the Valley in Corvallis with us. I thank them for their support and friendship.

And I want to thank my wife, Pastor Patricia, for coming to share in the installation service. Patricia is currently serving at Holy Cross Lutheran Church in Salem, a congregation of the Oregon Synod, ELCA. While we two are not in the same Lutheran denominational family, she has been an incredible support to me in my work as an intentional interim pastor. She earned board certification in her work as chaplain at Sacred Heart Hospital in Springfield, Oregon. You may remember it was at a training event for interim ministry that we first met at Concordia Seminary in St. Louis in 2011. In 2013 God led us to marry and share the joy He provides for these later years of our lives as husband and wife.

Looking ahead, June means that summer is really here! Our church changes worship times during the summer as you know. Worship begins at 10:00 AM starting May 28th, the Memorial Day weekend. That next week Patricia and I will be heading south to California for a continuing education seminar in interim ministry in Santa Anna. Pastor Gene Ludwig has agreed to be on call for Trinity while I am away should there be a pastor care need.

June also marks the end of the Easter Season (seven weeks long) and beginning of the Season of Pentecost. June 4 is Pentecost Sunday and everyone is invited to wear red to celebrate the out pouring of the Holy Spirit and the birthday of the church. June 11 is Trinity Sunday, our last "white Sunday" for quite a while. Trinity Sunday, or the Feast of the Holy Trinity, is the only Sunday in the church year that commemorates not an event (like Christmas or Easter), but a reality: that God has revealed Himself to us and invites us to know Him as Father, Son and Holy Spirit, three in one. Trinity Sunday celebrates the truth, unique to the Christian faith: God made us and all that is, God's saves us in Jesus, the Son, and God is with us, now and into all eternity in the Holy Spirit!

I look forward to continuing to get to know each and every one of you and the Sheridan community. I am still very much the "new guy" who still hasn't even begun to match names and faces. So you could help me by not hesitating to remind me of your name, the way Mrs. Elias does when she greets me after worship. I'd like very much to visit with you face to face some time soon. If you'd like to set up a time right away, don't hesitate to give me a call on my cell phone.

In Christ,
Pastor Joe Hughes

This allows the afternoon for visitation. I normally take Fridays off with my wife. Saturdays I work from home preparing for Sunday worship.

Ladies Aid (Lutheran Women's Missionary League, LWML)

Ladies Aid will meet on Tuesday, June 6 at 1 pm
in the Fellowship Hall

If you were to attend one of our Ladies Aid meetings you would see on the table two empty, plastic margarine tubs. Nothing fancy here. One is labeled "Offerings" the other is labeled "Mites". So what exactly are mites and offerings? Stefanie Morrow, our treasurer, gave us a wonderful report.

Offerings are collected and used at Trinity by the Ladies Aid in whatever capacity we deem necessary. We support missionaries Craig and Lani Norwood and Love's Door.

Based on the Biblical account of the widow's mite, mites are collected and used to fund many programs at the district and national level. 25% of the mites are given to the national LWML organization. National mites fund over $1 million in mission grants. A few of the programs that are funded include: LCMS Disaster Response Trailers; Cancer Care Packages; Bringing the Gospel to the Lost Sheep of Israel and Lutheran Young Adult Corps. The other 75% of the mites collected are used by the Oregon District to fund programs they have chosen: a soccer clinic for underprivileged youth in Portland; a Lutheran church in Belize, the very first LCMS church there; help for families facing a life threatening illness; scholarships for pastoral education for African students are just a few receiving our mites.

From time to time you will see a very large "Mite Box" on the table in the narthex along with a little information on each of the programs that benefit from them. Please join us in reaching out to others with the Good News of Jesus Christ one coin at a time. Together we are making a difference.

SPIRITUAL DIRECTION OPPORTUNITY

Spiritual Direction is a ministry of directing thoughts and movements of our hearts toward God and responding to the presence of God in our lives. It is a conversation among three persons: the Director/Guide; the Directee; and the Holy Spirit which occurs on Holy Ground. The Director/Guide helps another person hear, see, and respond to God.

A Director/Guide offers companionship to help make sense of the faith journey by guidance in interpreting the significant markers on the journey and supporting transitions of the pilgrimage. Together, we foster development of your interior life through prayer. In maturing presence and sacred listening, we will have the opportunity to explore your sacred journey and relationship with God. We spend a portion of our time together in prayer and Lectio divina.

Your decision to meet is the result of your desire to examine your spiritual life. My role is not to be a psychotherapist, but it is at times appropriate for us to discuss psychological and relational challenges in the context of spiritual direction. I do not give advice, but assist in providing direction for personal spiritual growth and decision making.

Our private meetings are strictly confidential and would occur for approximately one hour a month at a mutually agreeable time. You can end direction at any time. There is no charge for Spiritual Direction.

If you are interested, I would be happy to speak with you and provide more specific information about Spiritual Direction. In confidence, you can contact me through the church office (503-843-4747 or sheridantlc.org) or we can talk before or after Divine Service on a Sunday. As of mid-April, I am a Certified Spiritual Director through Shalom Prayer Center in Mt. Angel, Oregon.

Blessings

WITNESSING TO THE NONCHURCHED PEOPLE IN YOUR LIFE

EVERY ONE
HIS WITNESS
LUTHERAN EVANGELISM™

Witness is the purpose of your everyday life.

The Every One His Witness™ Lutheran evangelism program considers the real world context in which Lutherans find themselves as witnesses of Jesus Christ. It puts sound doctrine into practical action for sharing the faith with the people whom God has placed alongside His witnesses in their everyday lives.

Not sure how to witness?

“LASSIE” is the answer. This relational, contextual witnessing approach teaches us to naturally share the Good News of Jesus Christ as we Listen-Ask-Seek-Share-Invite-Encourage people in our lives who are not yet part of the Church.

Completion of the Every One His Witness workshop unlocks online participation in context modules like witnessing to members of different world religions or cults, witnessing to people who are unchurched or dechurched, witnessing to those experiencing difficult life events, and witnessing while offering works of mercy.

Bugs

"Dad, are bugs good to eat?" asked the boy.

"Let's not talk about such things at the dinner table, son," his father replied.

After dinner the father inquired, "Now son, what did you want to ask me?"

Oh, nothing," the boy said. "There was a bug in your soup, but now it's gone."

Pop Vs. Pup

While flying, my mother was sitting across the aisle from a woman and her eight-year-old son. Mom couldn't help laughing as they neared their destination and she heard the mother say to the boy, "Now remember — run to Dad first, then the dog."

Grand Sheramina

Food Bank

120 N Bridge St. • PO Box 536 • Sheridan, OR 97378

Thanks to the generosity of our supporters - residents and businesses in Sheridan and Willamina areas - your local food bank has been able to accomplish some important activities since the beginning of 2017.

First, in the period from Jan. - Apr. we have been able to provide emergency food boxes to more than 800 individuals. The boxes include a variety of food - from fresh eggs and milk, produce, meat, canned food, salads and frozen veggies. We also make sure everyone gets a jar of peanut butter and a box of cereal.

Second, we have been able to purchase a used refrigerator-freezer from the McMinnville Senior Center and a new commercial refrigerator. We received grants from several organizations that covered nearly all the cost of these two items.

Third, thanks to generous cash donations we have been able to purchase two new carts that we use to load food boxes for our clients. We have also purchased a commercial grade unloading device that allows us to move pallets of food into the warehouse.

Fourth, we have installed a new sink in the food distribution area and currently are working to upgrade our gas heating system.

Fifth, we have acquired a used 2001 box truck to pick up our food from the McMinnville food bank and other locations.

Our volunteers have donated many extra hours over the past four months to reorganize the distribution area to accommodate the large commercial refrigerator.

We have been truly blessed - thanks to your generous donations of cash, food, and time. If you would like to tour the food bank or if you have any questions about its operations please call me at 503-843-4353.

Thanks again,

TLC QUILTERS

There was good group of helpers for packing the 12 boxes - and a total of 46 quilts - following the April 30th dedication. Most appreciated! JoAnn and Al Ashcroft delivered the quilts to the Beaverton Lutheran Church to start their journey all over the world. TLC Quilters are beginning to start over to build up another supply. Five quilts were tied each of the last Thursdays.

TLC Quilters will take the summer off and resume working in September. Their schedule will be the third and forth Thursdays of the month. They could sure use more help!

Ladies Spring Tea

A small group of ladies gathered on Sunday, May 7 for an afternoon of fellowship and sharing.

Tracy Grauer spoke briefly on “spiritual whitespace”. A term best described as a time for the soul to rest; spiritual rest; to slow; to savor a moment. We gathered together, drank our tea, ate cookies and shared some very special stories with one another. Without giving away any “secrets” a few of the items of special interest that were shared included: a baby doll whose eyes opened and closed, she is now over 70 years old! A dear old teddy bear; books, a glass ball found at the beach and let’s not forget the green stamps! Who remembers green stamps?! All of us did...are we dating ourselves?! We all agreed that it is the people and the relationships behind the item that matters most to us.

FROM THE HYMNAL

CROWN HIM WITH MANY CROWNS

Matthew Bridges

1800-1894

Godfrey Thring

1823-1903

Christ who bore the crown of thorns while on the cross is now crowned with “many crowns” as the reigning monarch in heaven. Each crown in this hymn text exalts Christ for some specific aspect of His person or ministry: Stanza 1 Crown Him with many crowns – for His eternal Kingship, Stanza 2 Crown Him the Lord of love – for his love demonstrated in redemptive suffering, Stanza 3 Crown Him the Lord of life – for His victorious resurrection and ascension, Stanza 4 Crown Him the Lord of heaven – as a member of the Triune Godhead ever worthy of worship and praise.

The above 4 stanza text is the combined effort of two distinguished Anglican clergyman, each of whom desired to write a hymn of exaltation to our suffering but now victorious Lord. The version by Matthew Bridges first appeared in 1851 with 6 stanzas. 23 years later Godfrey Thring wrote 6 additional stanzas. The above form of the hymn includes stanzas 1, 2, and 4 by Bridges and the 3rd stanza by Thring. Many of you may recognize other familiar stanzas depending on which hymnal this hymn is found.

Godfrey Thring

The red service book which was a hymnal published by Augsburg Publishing House for the Lutheran Church in America has 5 stanzas, two of which are not included in the above, Crown Him the Lord of peace... and Crown Him the Lord of years... The author of these verses would require additional research to see if they belong to Bridges or Thring.

George Job Elvey

The tune, Diademata (the Greek word for ‘crowns’) was composed especially for this text by George Elvey, a noted organist at St George’s Chapel in Windsor, England, where British royalty attend Easter Sunday service and royal occasions.

THANK YOU
SO VERY MUCH

I want to thank my Trinity family for all the support we received during my dad's recent heart attack and hospital stay. I can't put into words what it meant to us. The rides, food, prayers and your understanding during my work absences truly were a blessing. My dad continues to heal at home and has made great progress in his recovery.

I would also like to thank you for all the attention I received for Administrative Professionals Day. Your prayers, cards, flowers and monetary gifts were a surprise!

Servant Sundays

From videography interviews with Jane; to creating community Christmas hangers with Crafter Extraordinaire, Tracy; to presenting a musical Christmas program with Jane and Lora; or cooking lasagna with Chef Dan; Servant Sundays have been all about working together to share our gifts with others - whether it was the community, our church family, or each other. For the February LOVE dinner, kids created heart decorations, served all those delicious courses, and assisted with the program and prizes. Once again, under the direction of Jane and Dan! Easter brought the culmination of our cross art activities with the decoration of the flowery Easter cross - thanks to Hal and Elin. Now we are blessed to be learning about survival skills under the direction of Scout Leader, Mike Higginson.

THANK YOU to Jane, Kris, and Becky who brought patience, kindness, and creativity to the group and would take control once choir practice called. We appreciate all the love and support from Trinity - whether it's eating 'interesting' pancakes, coming to programs, or simply letting us use the Fellowship Hall ~ THANK YOU! Thank you also to Jeff for leading the Adult Forum.

Servant Sundays may be officially on sabbatical until September, but we will need many hands in June to prepare our float for the

Sheridan Days parade and volunteers to help serve those pancakes! ~ Mary Lukehart

Remember To Do It For Jesus!

And a special THANK YOU to Mary - the leader of the Education Team, for your tireless energy, ideas and enthusiasm!

TLC's Book Worm

When my eyes were younger, I liked to cross-stitch on linen while my kids napped or in the evening while Willie watched TV. My favorite thing to stitch was samplers. Samplers are a line of specialty stitches, the alphabet and a verse. Many times, it is a Bible verse. I loved the history behind these. Young girls would learn to stitch for their Hope Chests using odds and ends of threads to make their designs. This was their schooling.

Later, a friend of mine, Claudia introduced me to quilting and once more samplers became a favorite thing to make. This time I used scraps of material, made many different blocks, and joined them together to make a beautiful quilt.

My offering for you this month is another "sampler" of sorts. Sins of the Past is a trilogy of short stories written by three different authors, Dee Henderson, Dani Pettrey and Lynette Eason. This gave me a chance to "sample" two authors I had not read before.

Missing. Martha Graham has a secret she has never told her son. Now she is missing from her retirement home. Her son John is a sheriff in Wyoming. He has come to Chicago to help the police department find her.

Shadowed. A distance swimmer from Russia is found dead by an Alaskan fisherman. Her X-college roommate and closest competitor was the one to ID the body. She becomes a help in the investigation of the death and is stalked by the dead swimmers killer.

Blackout. Macy Adams did something stupid when she was eighteen. She unknowingly became an accomplice in a robbery. Now, someone who wants her to remember where the stolen goods are hid, is stalking her.

I love a good mystery and these three stories were good. Now, the only thing to make this read complete is a Whitman's Chocolate sampler! ☺

Happy Reading.

Old Fashioned Sugar Cookies

(served at the Spring Tea)

1 cup butter
1 cup vegetable oil (I use canola oil)
1 cup powdered sugar
1 cup granulated sugar
Cream together and add:
2 eggs
1 t. Vanilla

Sift together:
1 t. Salt
1 t. Cream of tartar
4-5 cups flour

Add to creamed mixture.

Roll into ball and place on ungreased cookie sheet. Press down lightly on cookie with a glass dipped in sugar.

Bake 375 degrees about 12 minutes.
Cool and frost with your favorite frosting.

Makes a big batch of cookies.
